

Desert Eagle Discs

Producers / Remixers / Writers

The Desert Eagles Discs sound system was formed by Syze Up and DJ Uncle Zarb in the early 90's and by the mid 90's had progressed to remixing artists such as Gabrielle and Lil' Kim, finally signing to Arista through Boilerhouse & realising "The Eagle Has Landed".

While outside production & remixes poured in, leading to work with artists such as Rakim, Annie Lennox, Busta Rhymes & Aretha Franklin, Syze started writing the 2nd Desert Eagle Discs album with Marsha Ambrosius for Floetry, Angie Stone, Annie Lennox & Sia.

After a one off single with The Echo Label in 2003, "Bigger Better Deal" vocaled by Keisha White & Rodney P, Syze formed Desert Eagle Associated Labels (or D.E.A.L. for short).

Currently Syze has found a new partner in crime in the shape of programmer/producer Richard Robson (Richard Ashcroft & The Magic Numbers) to form the most exciting production duo in years. In under 12 months they have killed the dancefloors with remixes for the likes of Sugababes, Mattafix & Amy Winehouse and they are currently writing & producing D.C. Lee's new album as well as preparing Desert Eagle Discs album 2 for release with a brand new truly breathtaking vocalist.

DESERT EAGLE DISCS :: Biography

Syze-Up & DJ Uncle Zarb started the famous Desert Eagles Discs sound system in the early 90's and by the mid 90's Syze had progressed to remixing artists such as Gabrielle and Lil' Kim.

When Syze met The Boilerhouse Boys it led to him demo-ing original songs for Polydor, London Records & Go-Discs, finally signing to Arista through Boilerhouse & realising "The Eagle Has Landed". The Eagle Has Landed was likened to Massive Attack with Syze handpicking an array of vocalists, GQ hailed it "The benchmark album of 1999".

While outside production & remixes poured in, leading to work with artists such as Rakim, Annie Lennox, Busta Rhymes & Aretha Franklin, Syze started writing the 2nd Desert Eagle Discs album with Marsha Ambrosius for Floetry, Angie Stone, Annie Lennox & Sia.
